I don’t see what I can do for America’s 300,000 homeless kids.
I don’t see what I can do for America’s 300,000 homeless.
I don’t see what I can do for America.
I don’t see what I can do.
I don’t see.
I don’t.
I do.

That’s as many homeless children as we had back in the Great Depression of the 1930s. Let’s help them from becoming homeless adults. Please become a member of NCH, and join us in bringing America home. To be informed and stay involved, visit www.nationalhomeless.org. Regularly updated, our site contains information on all Coalition activities plus links to sites dealing with homelessness across the country.
