In-Person Voting: Tuesday, November 5, 2024	When you arrive to vote at the polls on Election Day in Minnesota, you do not need to show ID unless it is your first time voting in a federal election or if your registration is incomplete. First-time voters may need to provide identification if they did not provide proof of residence when they registered. Accepted forms of ID include a driver's license, state ID card, or a utility bill with your name and current address. (Minnesota Statutes § 201.061)
Absentee or Mail-in Voting Deadline	Minnesota voters can request an absentee ballot up until the day before Election Day, November 4th, 2024. You can request a mail-in ballot or check your status by visiting the Minnesota Secretary of State's website or by contacting your County Election Office. All absentee ballots must be received by Election Day to be counted.
Early Voting	Minnesota allows early in-person voting starting 46 days before the election, which means early voting will begin on September 20, 2024, and will end on November 4, 2024. Voters can vote in person at designated early voting locations or at their local county election office.
